Lisbon, February 21.-(Special)-The suit of Mary A. Coy and other heirs of J. W. Conser, against Philip Conser, executor of the estate, came to an abrupt end this morning. For the second time this week the school house at Walker was broken into last night. David Pritchard. claiming Parkersburg as his home, is in the city jail, having been convicted Lisbon tomorrow to serve a sentence in the county prison.

Constable Powell arrested Pritchard at about 9 o'clock this morning. He was found by a fire near the Walker sewer pipe works evidently getting ready to prepare a meal. When searched a pistol was found in one of his pockets.

The affidavit leading up to Pritchard's apprehension was filed this morning by J. D. Myler, one of the school directors of the Walker school. He first learned that the building was broken into from Renfrew McFadden. a young son of Hugh McFadden, who is also a director of the school. The boy is employed at the sewer pipe works and as he went to work this morning he noticed smoke coming from the chimney of the school building and at once suspected that somebody was on the inside

Hastening to Mr. Myler's home the boy made known what he had seen and the two immediately investigated. As they neared the school house they say Pritchard coming out carrying a bucket. They then followed him to the spot where he built the fire and then returned to the open building.

It was found that the lock had been broken, as was also the one on the coal house, the tramp having helped himself to the fuel with which he kept himself warm till morning. His tracks, after leaving the building, were plainly visible in the snow and Myler knew positively he had the guilty man.

Boarding a street car he hurried to Justice McLane's office, where he filed the charge, and Constable Powell promptly made the arrest. A part of the city commissioner's force has been engaged on Eighth street and Lisbon road almost continually since the cold weather began several weeks ago.

Having Noticed Smoke Issuing From the School Building Chimney.

When the Teacher Came This Morning-David Pritchard, the Alleged Offender, Had a Hearing And Was Committed to Jail at Lisbon.

For the second time this week the school house at Walker was broken into last night. David Pritchard. claiming Parkersburg as his home, is in the city jail, having been convicted of the crime, and will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow to serve a sentence in the county prison.

Constable Powell arrested Pritchard at about 9 o'clock this morning. He was found by a fire near the Walker sewer pipe works evidently getting ready to prepare a meal. When searched a pistol was found in one of his pockets.

The affidavit leading up to Pritchard's apprehension was filed this morning by J. D. Myler, one of the school directors of the Walker school. He first learned that the building was broken into from Renfrew McFadden, a young son of Hugh McFadden, who is also a director of the school. The boy is employed at the sewer pipe works and as he went to work this morning he noticed smoke coming from the chimney of the school building and at once suspected that somebody was on the inside.

Hastening to Mr. Myler's home the boy made known what he had seen and the two immediately investigated. As they neared the school house they say Pritchard coming out carrying a bucket. They then followed him to the spot where he built the fire and then returned to the open building.

It was found that the lock had been broken, as was also the one on the coal house, the tramp having helped himself to the fuel with which he kept himself warm till morning. His tracks, after leaving the building, were plainly visible in the snow and Myler knew positively he had the guilty man.

Boarding a street car he hurried to Lineup of the Teams That Will Play Justice McLane's office, where he filed the charge, and Constable Powell promptly made the arrest. Lisbon, February 21.—(Special)— Ex-Sheriff Mark O. Lodge died at 9:20 last evening as the result of gun shot wounds accidentally inflicted.

His condition was favorable yesterday morning and an operation was planned for yesterday afternoon. But he grew steadily weaker through the day. His heart action failed and respiration became irregular.

Dr. T. B. Marquis said this morning that Mr. Lodge's death probaly resulted from incipient pneumonia and pleurisy. One shot was found to have pierced the abdominal cavity. It is believed by the doctors that the greater part of the load of shot struck above the cavity.

An autopsy will be held at Leetonia there today.

Mr. Lodge would have been 42 years old next Monday. He is survived by a wife and three children-Myrtle, Walter and Orland. The funeral will be held Sunday after-

Mr. Lodge served two terms as sheriff and made a most efficient offier. Prior to his election he served as marshal of Leetonia and as chief of police of Wellsville. He had numerous friends and was very popular wherever he was known.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF A FARM CAUSED SUIT.

Cheap And He Had to Pay $800.

Lisbon, February 21.—(Special)— The suit of Mary A. Coy and other heirs of J. W. Conser, against Philip Conser, executor of the estate, came to an abrupt end this morning. The executor sold a farm belonging to the estate for $4,548. The heirs claimed this was much less than the value. In a short time the executor had the farm in his own name. Hence suit was brought to compel the executor to deed over the property to the heirs or to make testitution.

Judge Albaugh, of Canton, represented the heirs and Judge Moore and DJ. A. Martin, the executor. The attorneys reported this morning that a settlement had been made by which Philip Conser is to pay to the heirs $800, while the heirs are to furnish him a proper title to the land. The farm is in Hanover township.

The Question!

Does it pay to deal with a strictly cash store? That is the question with a great many people at present. The store thus conducted has the advantage, because they loose nothing on bad accounts, no time keeping books, no postage on statements, and make no enemies, because they deal with all alike. It is not fair for the person who buys for credit, to buy as cheap as one who pays cash, and they do not, because a store doing a credit business must have more for their goods. Somebody has to bear this extra expense. Buy your shoes of

The enterprise of the people of St. Clair township in determining to be the pioneers in building good roads in Columbiana county is deserving of crepe paper. The chandeliers were already been outlined in these columns. They propose to secure authority from the legislature to issue bonds and commence improvement by paving the road from Calcutta to East Liverpool with brick. This road, although probably one of the oldest in the county, is one of the worst. Enough money and work has been wasted in most townships in the past 50 years to have made all the main roads good had a proper system been followed. The experiment now proposed can scarcely fail to be successful if carried out. And the owners of land along the improved road will find, unless their experience is contrary to the general rule, that the increased value of their properties will more than compensate for the guessed the greatest number of names cost of building the road and keeping it in good condition. It is a welcome sign to see the farmers of the county awakening to the importance of road building. Their interests have suffered too long from neglect of this important matter.

The enterprise of the people of St Clair township in determining to be the pioneers in building good roads in Columbiana county is deserving of commendation and encouragement. Their plan for starting the work hae already been outlined in these columns. They propose to secure authority from the legislature to issue bonds and commence improvement by paving the road from Calcutta to East Liverpool with brick. This road, although probably one of the oldest in the county, is one of the worst. Enough money and work has been wasted in most townships in the past 50 years to have made all the main roads good had a proper system been followed. The experiment now proposed can scarcely fail to be successful if carried out. And the owners of land along the improved road will and, unless their experience is contrary to the general rule, that the increased value of their properties will more than compensate for the cost of building the road and keeping it in good condition. It is a welcome sign to see the farmers of the county awakening to the importance of road building. Their interests have suffered too long from neglect of this important matter.

Toledo has an association of college women, and the association has ideas. One of those ideas is that there are ner. a great many unsightly and inartistic things in Toledo, such as billboards, filthy alleys, vacant lots covered with rubbish and other spots in need of a general cleaning up. The college women have a patriotic and praiseworthy plan of cleaning Toledo. Something of the sort might be suggested for East Liverpool, without fear of giving offense. It would not require a college education for a woman with the house-cleaning faculty normally developed to see plenty of things of the sort mentioned that ought to be reme-

That is why the newspapers are obliged to devote so much more of their space to crime than to honesty." FLAG PRESENTED CHESTER SCHOOLS

An Impressive Patriotic Celebration On the Southside This Afternoon.

PLEASING PROGRAM GIVEN

It Included Speeches And Music. the Jr. O. U. A. M.

A more beautiful and impressive patriotic demonstration has never been witnessed in Chester than at the celebration of Washington's birthday this afternoon in the United Presbyterian church. The chief ceremony consisted of

The flag was a beautiful design and duty. in size 6x10 feet. It was raised to the top of an iron staff, also given by the order.

The bibles were very handsome and will make needful acquisitions to the schools.

The exercises were participated in by the children of the lower district schools, who marched from their school building, each carrying a dainty little flag, to First street, where they fell in line at the rear of the Jr. O. U. A. M. and then all in a body by the children of that school.

The procession arrived at the church at 1:30 p. m., enthusiastically cheered assembled. Among those present the East Liverpool, Wellsville, Smith's far as to say they will render all as-Ferry, Fairmount and New Cumber land orders were represented.

The most pleasing program was opened with a devotional exercise by Rev. W. B. Gov. Taft Says That Much of the Sickness In Philippines Comes From Exposure.

Washington, Feb. 21.-Governor Taft continued to discuss the climatic conditions in the Philippines yesterday before the senate committee. Reverting to what he had said Wednesday concerning the health of the American troops in the l'ailippines, Governor Taft said that much of the sickness which existed is due to exposure, and he incidentally made an appeal for liberal appropriations for the construction of barracks and for troops in the Philippines due to guerrilla warfare, saying it is impossible to get the soldiers to observe the laws of hygiene.

His experience, Governor Taft said, was that the greatest danger in the matter of health in the Philippines which are not generally regarded as of importance in the United States. He knew, he said, of Europeans who had spent 30 or 40 years in the islands and who are in good health He thought, however, that they generally left the islands for several months every two or three years. JONES SAID HE COMMITTED THE

CRIME.

Patrick Was In the Conspiracy With Him-Sensational Testimony

at Trial.

New York, Feb. 21.-A very dramatic point in the trial of Lawyer Albert T. Patrick for the murder of the Texas millionaire, William Marsh Rice, was reached yesterday after-Charles F. Jones, the valet, had been relating the circumstances leading up to the somewhat sudden death of Mr. Rice, in September. Then, plunging at once into the details, he held the attention of his audience to the end of his recital.

Freed of minor points, his story fol-Grew Impatient For Rice's Death.

In August Patrick grew impatient. Mr. Rice, though an invalid, was living too long to suit the lawyer's purposes. Patrick said he would come to the house and kill him himself, if necessary. He suggested chloroform and Jones said he would get some. The idea of chloroform as a means was suggested by a magazine article. It was determined on after Jones the protection of officers and men. talked with a physician, who said a He thought the high death rate of person whose heart was affected as was Mr. Rice's could be most easily killed with it and that little trace of the drug would be left. Jones got a two-ounce vial of it by writing to his brother in Texas.

Jones then branched off into the alleged plan to weaken the already is found in the neglect of symptoms sick old man. This was by giving him mercury and iron pills. The brought on pills debilitating diarrhoea. Then unwittingly a friend brought Mr. Rice a present of bananas. Of these the old man ate nine. The fruit made him exceedingly ill, and yet the weakening doses of mercury were kept up. By Saturday, being about the eighth day of the last illness, Mr. Rice became delirious. This testimony brought the events up to Sunday, the day of death, and the witness had said that during these 10 days of illness he had kept Patrick informed of the details personally and by telephone.

William Marsh Rice's quick death, declared the witness, was decided at a conference between Patrick and Jones, held Saturday night. Jones had told the lawyer of the arrival of a draft for $25,000. Patrick told him it was time to apply the chloroform, now that the draft had come and Captain Baker was coming, or they would lose all. Jones agreed. Chloroformed Rice to Death.

Jones here told his story of the actual killing. He made a cone of a towel, in the small end of which was a chloroform-soaked sponge. Creeping into the room where Mr. Rice lay sleeping, he quickly covered the sleeper's face with the large end of the cone. Jones rushed out of the room. In half an hour he came back. He removed the cone. Mr. Rice was dead. Jones swore he telephoned to Patrick the words, "Mr. Rice is very ill," the agreed signal between the two of death. Jones' story of the enl was concluded by the statement that Patrick came to the house and removed all of Mr. Rice's papers.

New York, Feb. 21 .- A very dramatic point in the trial of Lawyer Albert T. Patrick for the murder of the Texas millionaire, William Marsh Rice, was reached yesterday afternoon. Charles F. Jones, the valet, had been relating the circumstances leading up to the somewhat sudden death of Mr. Rice, in September. Then, plunging at once into the details, he held the attention of his audience to the end of his recital. Freed of minor points, his story fol-

Grew Impatient For Rice's Death.

In August Patrick grew impatient. Mr. Rice, though an invalid, was living too long to suit the lawyer's purposes. Patrick said he would come to the house and kill him himself, if necessary. He suggested chloroform and Jones said he would get some. The idea of chloroform as a means was suggested by a magazine article. It was determined on after Jones person whose heart was affected as was Mr. Rice's could be most easily killed with it and that little trace of the drug would be left. Jones got a two-ounce vial of it by writing to his brother in Texas. Jones then branched off into the alleged plan to weaken the already sick old man. This was by giving brought on debilitating diarrhoea. Then unwittingly a friend brought Mr. Rice a present of bananas. Of these the old man ate The fruit made him exceedingly ill, and yet the weakening doses of mercury were kept up. By Saturday, being about the eighth day of the last illness, Mr. Rice became delirious. This testimony brought the events up to Sunday, the day of death, and the witness had said that during these 10 days of illness he had kept Patrick informed of the details personally and by telephone.

William Marsh Rice's quick death, declared the witness, was decided at a conference between Patrick and Jones, held Saturday night. Jones had told the lawyer of the arrival of a draft for $25,000. Patrick told him it was time to apply the chloroform, now that the draft had come and Captain Baker was coming, or they would lose all. Jones agreed.

Chloroformed Rice to Death.

Jones here told his story of the actual killing. He made a cone of a towel, in the small end of which was a chloroform-soaked sponge. Creeping into the room where Mr. Rice lay sleeping, he quickly covered the sleeper's face with the large end of the cone. Jones rushed out of the room. In half an hour he came back. He removed the cone. Mr. Rice was dead. Jones swore he telephoned to Patrick the words, "Mr. Rice is very the agreed signal between the two of death. Jones' story of the en l was concluded by the statement that Patrick came to the house and removed all of Mr. Rice's papers.

Te Deum Sung at St. Peter's. Most Impressive Service In Years.

25TH YEAR OF PONTIFICATE.

Thousands Listened to the Service, at the Cathedral In Rome-At Its Cicse the Pope Showed Himself. Warmly Saluted.

Rome, Feb. 21.-The pope yesterday entered on the twenty-fifth year of his pontificate. Although the main celebration of the jubilee is postponed until March 3, when the combined festivals of the jubilee and coronation will be observed, yesterday was marked by the singing of a Te Deum in St. Peter's and other observances. The pontiff was the recipient of congratulations from ail sides.

During the course of the day the pope received in audience, in the throne room, a committee, which presented him with a commemorative medal, replicas of which will be distributed to pilgrims at the approaching celebrations.

The singing of the Te Deum in St. Peter's was the most impressive service in years. It was conducted by Cardinal Rampolla, in the presence of 24 cardinals and 40 bishops. The pontifical noble guard was present in full dress uniforms, worn for the first time yesterday since 1870. Three hundred representatives of Catholic associations, the Italian representatives of the religious orders and 20,069 spectators also listened to the service. At the conclusion of the Te Deum the pope appeared at a window of his apartments and watched the crowd disperse. He was saluted by the waving of hate and handker-

ISLAND CLIMATIC CONDITIONS.

Gov. Taft Says That Much of the Sickness In Philippines Comes From Exposure.

Washington, Feb. 21.-Governor Taft continued to discuss the climatic conditions in the Philippines yesterday before the senate committee. Reverting to what he had said Wednesday concerning the health of the American troops in the l'nilippines, Governor Taft said that much of the sickness which existed is due to exposure, and he incidentally made an appeal for liberal appropriations for the construction of barracks and for the protection of officers and men. He thought the high death rate of troops in the Philippines due to guerrilla warfare, saying it is impossible killed with it and that little trace of to get the soldiers to observe the laws of hygiene.

His experience, Governor Taft said, was that the greatest danger in the matter of health in the Philippines' is found in the neglect of symptoms which are not generally regarded as of importance in the United States. He knew, he said, of Europeans who diarrhoea. Then unwittingly a friend had spent 30 or 40 years in the islands and who are in good health He thought, however, that they generally left the islands for several months every two or three years. As a rule, continued residence had the effect of causing a gradual deterioration of health.

Lisbon, February 21.—(Special)-Ex-Sheriff Mark O. Lodge died at 9:20 last evening as the result of gun shot wounds accidentally inflicted.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF A FARM CAUSED SUIT.

Heirs Said He Sold the Property Too Cheap And He Had to Pay $800.

Lisbon, February 21.-(Special)-The suit of Mary A. Coy and other heirs of J. W. Conser, against Philip Conser, executor of the estate came to an abrupt end this morning. The executor sold a farm belonging to the estate for $4,548. The heirs claimed this was much less than the value. In a short time the executor had the farm in his own name. Hence suit was brought to compel the executor to deed over the property to the heirs or to make testitution.

Judge Albaugh, of Canton, represented the heirs and Judge Moore and DJ. A. Martin, the executor. The attorneys reported this morning that a settlement had been made by which Philip Conser is to pay to the heirs $800, while the heirs are to furnish him a proper title to the land. The farm is in Hanover township.

We are strongly opposed to the principle of special taxation, believing it to be wrong and inequitable. Should, however, the present system of taxation be not sufficient for state purposes, we would suggest an increase in the taxation, making it general and not special. The state should encourage rather than discourage its manufacturing interests. Corporations are a benefit to the state by reason of being able to transact their business with the public in a more satisfactory manner than is possible in the case of private firms or partnerships. We shall thank you if you can see your way clear to represent our interests as expressed in the foregoing."

This is signed, "Your Constituents." It is understood Senator Connell is opposed to the passage of the bill in its present form. Representative Crist has gone home. Representative Buell is anxious to protect the manufacturers, but feels that he should vote in accan caucus. The situation is somewhat complicated and may cause some members some embarassment.

GAVE THE TIP

Having Noticed Smoke Issuing From the School Building Chimney.

When the Teacher Came This Morning-David Pritchard, the Alleged Offender, Had a Hearing And Was Committed to Jail at Lisbon.

For the second time this week the school house at Walker was broken into last night. David Pritchard. claiming Parkersburg as his home, is in the city jail, having been convicted of the crime, and will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow to serve a sentence in the county prison.

Constable Powell arrested Pritchard at about 9 o'clock this morning. He was found by a fire near the Walker sewer pipe works evidently getting ready to prepare a meal. When searched a pistol was found in one of his pockets.

The affidavit leading up to Pritchard's apprehension was filed this morning by J. D. Myler, one of the school directors of the Walker school. He first learned that the building was broken into from Renfrew McFadden, a young son of Hugh McFadden, who is also a director of the school. The boy is employed at the sewer pipe works and as he went to work this morning he noticed smoke coming from the chimney of the school building and at once suspected that somebody was on the inside. Hastening to Mr. Myler's home the boy made known what he had seen and the two immediately investigated. As they neared the school house they say Pritchard coming out carrying a bucket. They then followed him to the spot where he built the fire and then returned to the open building. It was found that the lock had been broken, as was also the one on the coal house, the tramp having helped himself to the fuel with which he kept himself warm till morning. His tracks, after leaving the building, were plainly visible in the snow and Myler knew positively he had the guilty man. Boarding a street car he hurried to Justice McLane's office, where he filed the charge, and Constable Powell promptly made the arrest. In the meantime the teacher, Miss Eva Tarr. reached the school building and discovered that a hatchet and bucket had been stolen, together with a testament, which was taken from the

When arraigned before the magistrate Pritchard pleaded not guilty and was given an immediate trial. His outward appearance was not in his favor, as he was covered with grease and dirt and showed every evidence of being a thoroughbred hobo. Aside from Myler and the McFadden boy, Frank Ormes testified against the accused, and the evidence was so conclusive that he was promptly found guilty.

OAfter signing a waiver Pritchard was fined $10 and costs and committed to the Lisbon jail. He said he had no money, but claimed he had secured a job in the Wellsville mill and made a plea to be given a chance to pay his fine. This was refused and he will go to Lisbon tomorrow.

It is the intention of the directors of the Walker school to prosecute terrorizing the residents of that

Washington, Feb. 21 .- After conferences between state department officials and members of the senate and house of representatives arrangements have been completed for the reception of Prince Henry when he comes to the capitol next Monday afternoon. The prince will be accompanied by Ambassador Von Holleben or Count Quadt and the members of his staff. The party will arrive at the eastern main entrance about 4 o'clock and will enter the building by the rotunda. Here a committee of members of the house will be in waiting to receive him, as the visit to the senate will have to be made later, owing to the taking of the vote on the Philippine bill at 4 o'clock. Representatives Grosvenor and Hitt and one Democratic member, probably Representative Dinsmore, will constitute the committee. The prince will be escorted first to Speaker Henderson's private office, where greetings will be exchanged

This was a straight reciprocity proposition, each side granting 40 per cent reduction without the complications appearing in some of the other propositions as to the method of payment, etc.

Mr. Lorg's proposition drew out extended discussion, in which Mr. Payne, the chairman, and Mr. Mc-Call indicated a disposition to support it.

BREAD,

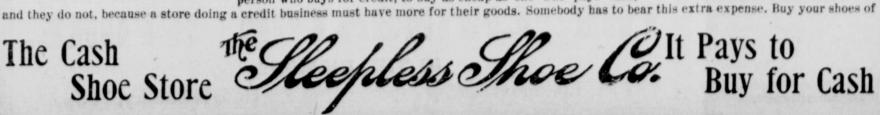

The Question!

Does it pay to deal with a strictly cash store? That is the question with a great many people at present. The store thus conducted has the advantage, because they loose nothing on bad accounts, no time keeping books, no postage on statements, and make no enemies, because they deal with all alike. It is not fair for the person who buys for credit, to buy as cheap as one who pays cash,

They propose to secure authority from the legislature to issue bonds and commence improvement by paving the road from Calcutta to East Liverpool with brick. This road, although probably one of the oldest in the county, is one of the worst. Enough money and work has been wasted in most townships in the past 50 years to have made all the main roads good had a proper system been followed. The experiment now proposed can scarcely fail to be successful if carried out. And the owners of land along the improved road will find, unless their experience is contrary to the general rule, that the increased value of their properties will more than compensate for the cost of building the road and keeping it in good condition. It is a welcome sign to see the farmers of the county awakening to the importance of road building. Their interests have suffered too long from neglect of this important matter.

Toledo has an association of college women, and the association has ideas. One of those ideas is that there are a great many unsightly and inartistic things in Toledo, such as billboards, filthy alleys, vacant lots covered with rubbish and other spots in need of a general cleaning up. The college women have a patriotic and praiseworthy plan of cleaning Toledo. Something of the sort might be suggested for East Liverpool, without fear of giving offense. It would not require a college education for a woman with the house-cleaning faculty normally developed to see plenty of things of the sort mentioned that ought to be remedied.

During the course of the day the pope received in audience, in the throne room, a committee, which presented him with a commemorative medal, replicas of which will be distributed to pilgrims at the approaching celebrations.

The singing of the Te Deum in St. Peter's was the most impressive service in years. It was conducted by Cardinal Rampolla, in the presence of 24 cardinals and 40 bishops. The pontifical noble guard was present in full dress uniforms, worn for the first time yesterday since 1870. Three hundred representatives of Catholic associations, the Italian representatives of the religious orders and 20,069 spectators also listened to the service. At the conclusion of the Te Deum the pope appeared at a window of his apartments and watched the crowd disperse. He was saluted by the waving of hate and handker-

ISLAND CLIMATIC CONDITIONS.

Gov. Taft Says That Much of the Sickness In Philippines Comes From Exposure.

Washington, Feb. 21.-Governor Taft continued to discuss the climatic conditions in the Philippines yester day before the senate committee. Reverting to what he had said Wednesday concerning the health of the American troops in the l'ailippines, Governor Taft said that much of the sickness which existed is due to exposure, and he incidentally made an appeal for liberal appropriations for the construction of barracks and for the protection of officers and men. He thought the high death rate of troops in the Philippines due to guerrilla warfare, saying it is impossible to get the soldiers to observe the laws of hygiene.

His experience, Governor Taft said, was that the greatest danger in the matter of health in the Philippines is found in the neglect of symptoms which are not generally regarded as him mercury and iron pills. of importance in the United States. He knew, he said, of Europeans who had spent 30 or 40 years in the islands and who are in good health He thought, however, that they generally left the islands for several months every two or three years. As a rule, continued residence had the effect of causing a gradual deterioration of health.

MURDERED RICE.

JONES SAID HE COMMITTED THE CRIME.

Patrick Was In the Conspiracy With Him-Sensational Testimony

at Trial.

New York, Feb. 21.-A very dramatic point in the trial of Lawyer Albert T. Patrick for the murder of the Texas millionaire, William Marsh Rice, was reached yesterday afternoon. Charles F. Jones, the valet, had been relating the circumstances leading up to the somewhat sudden death of Mr. Rice, in September. Then, plunging at once into the details, he held the attention of his audience to the end of his recital. Freed of minor points, his story follows:

Grew Impatient For Rice's Death.

In August Patrick grew impatient. Mr. Rice, though an invalid, was living too long to suit the lawyer's purposes. Patrick said he would come to the house and kill him himself, if necessary. He suggested chloroform and Jones said he would get some. The idea of chloroform as a means was suggested by a magazine article. It was determined on after Jones talked with a physician, who said a person whose heart was affected as was Mr. Rice's could be most easily killed with it and that little trace of the drug would be left. Jones got a two-ounce vial of it by writing to his brother in Texas.

Jones then branched off into the alleged plan to weaken the already sick old man. This was by giving brought debilitating on diarrhoea. Then unwittingly a friend brought Mr. Rice a present of bananas. Of these the old man ate nine. The fruit made him exceedingly ill, and yet the weakening doses of mercury were kept up. By Saturday, being about the eighth day cf the last illness, Mr. Rice became delirious. This testimony brought the events up to Sunday, the day of death, and the witness had said that during these 10 days of illness he had kept Patrick informed of the details personally and by telephone.

William Marsh Rice's quick death declared the witness, was decided at a conference between Patrick and Jones, held Saturday night. Jones had told the lawyer of the arrival of a draft for $25,000. Patrick told him it was time to apply the chloroform, now that the draft had come and Captain Baker was coming, or they would lose all. Jones agreed.

Chloroformed Rice to Death.

Jones here told his story of the actual killing. He made a cone of a towel, in the small end of which was a chloroform-soaked sponge. Creeping into the room where Mr. Rice lay sleeping, he quickly covered the sleeper's face with the large end of the cone. Jones rushed out of the room. In half an hour he came back. He removed the cone. Mr. Rice was dead. Jones swore he telephoned to Patrick the words, "Mr. Rice is very ill," the agreed signal between the two of death. Jones' story of the en l was concluded by the statement that moved all of Mr. Rice's papers.

Still standing beside the bed, Sutton sent a bullet into his own breast, and fell from exhaustion, after he left the house, but his attempt to end his own life was defeated by hospital physicians, who say he will
